

Lavita Shetty (Batch of 2013-2016)

I can positively say that Oxford college of Arts has helped me in every way possible.

It has all the best facilities in one roof, erudite faculty, professional teachers, well stocked libraries and studios with all the requirements. The faculties are very helpful and are approachable. The Psychology and English department is great.