

Hii lam Agustine Abrahm Here is my Testimony about my studies in Department of Social work, The oxford college of Arts. During 2020-22

I had a great experience during my studies in Department of Social work, The oxford college of Arts for pursuing master's in social work. The knowledge which I known before about social work entirely changed when I started my journey with department of social work in oxford college of arts. The teachers & staff are very skillful and helpful which really helped me in an easy & smooth conduct in understanding the course., I have gotten many work opportunities from various top firms and organization and did a lot of work with them it was all possible only because the best support from the teachers during my studies. Especially Naveen sir was great support in all curricular and co-curricular activities during the course. The motivation that I got from each faculty was wonderful, which led me to choose my area of interest in specialization as my profession. Studying MSW in The Oxford College of Arts, Department of Social work has widened my perspective and has given me an idea of the importance of social work in today's day and age. The Oxford College of Arts, the department of social work has made me what I am today.

I can proudly say lam carrying along with me a beautiful memory of this department and college and will always cherish them. Thank you MSW department of oxford college of arts for making this journey a pleasant and a memorable one.