INVITATION LETTER

To,

Shivaji Karade
President-HR,
Micro Labs Ltd
Bengaluru-560001

Sub: Application to apply for an internship

Greetings of the day!

As the principal of The Oxford College of Pharmacy, I am writing to explore the possibility of establishing an internship program for our students with Micro Labs Ltd. As a part of our academic achievements and credentials relevant to the course, I believe that an internship program with your esteemed organization would be an excellent opportunity for our students to enhance their learning experience and prepare for their future careers.

Thank you

Bengaluru 560068, Karnataka, India

This MOU, dated 22nd September 2017, establishes a mutual working relationship between the two parties (and their respective heirs, executors, administrators and assignees) as broadly outlined below:

Party-1's Role:

1. Party-1 is creating a state-of-the-art secure Online Platform as worldalumni.com (with related domains) for all the alumni, students, staff, faculty and related individuals at global level to find, connect, communicate, collaborate and coordinate in an integrated and seamless online environment for academic, placements, business, professional, personal and other uses
2. Registration at this Online Platform by any individual is purely voluntary and it is between Party-1 and the individual members
3. Party-1 is making all the necessary investment on its own for developing the Online Platform
4. Party-1 will provide one Premium Membership as a respect to the head of the Party-2 at no cost to Party-2
5. Party-1 on its Online Platform will provide a link to Party-2's primary website

Party-2's Role:

1. There is no financial obligation on the part of Party-2
2. Party-2 will designate a person to overview the information provided by the members in the Online Platform
3. Since any duplication of information at multiple places can make it difficult or cause confusion in finding the right information by the members, Party-2 will not engage in any duplication of the information provided at the Online Platform by Party-1, or it will not promote or use any such duplicated information
4. Party-2 on its primary website will provide a link to Party-1's Online Platform

This MOU may be amended at any time with the mutual consent of both the parties.

PREAMBLE

The Department of Pharmaceutics at The Oxford College of Pharmacy in Bengaluru hosted a Communication Skills Program that focused on the development of effective verbal communication, active listening, and presentation skills. Mrs. Kavya V Centralized Monitor, IQVIA, Bengaluru, led the session. On 15/09/2018, a program was conducted from 10:00 AM to 11:30 AM, which was well-attended by a total of 62 students. The purpose of the seminar was to build up students' confidence through communication skill development. The trainer discussed key elements regarding effective verbal communication, active listening, and developing presentation skills. Whether in personal interactions or professional matters, mastering these skills can profoundly impact our relationships, careers, and overall success. She also explained that effective communication is not merely about transmitting information; it's about fostering understanding, building rapport, and inspiring action. Through this program, we delve into the intricacies of communication, exploring techniques and strategies to express ourselves clearly, listen attentively, and confidently engage our audience. She summarized the objective of the seminar. Students were given the task of verbal communication by being divided into different teams to build their confidence level. Lastly, feedback was taken from the students for the session.

PREAMBLE

The Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry had organized Soft Skills Training Programs on Career Prospects for Pharmacy Students. The event was held on 23rd January 2019 at The Oxford College of Pharmacy. The session was conducted by Mr. Poovarasana J, Executive Planning SAP MM at Strides Pharma Corporate, and attended by 50 students from the third and fourth years of Pharm D and M Pharm. The participation of these students was a testament to their keen interest in their future careers. Dr. Nagalakshmi G, the Training Coordinator from the Pharmaceutical Chemistry Department, successfully organized the training program. The primary objective of the session was to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the various opportunities available in pharmacy. The trainer shared valuable insights on the education and skills required to excel in various pharmacy careers, helping the students make informed decisions about their future path in the pharmaceutical industry. He also explained communication skills for effective communication, interpersonal skills, empathy and cultural competence, problem-solving and critical thinking, time management professionalism and ethical behavior. This program also offered practical tips to help students enhance their career prospects. Mr. Poovarasana J. explained the purpose of the soft skill program clearly and concisely. He also gave the students a practical exercise, which involved drafting and sending a cover letter via email. The organizers collected feedback from the attendees, and commendable practice can help identify areas for improvement and enable organizers to enhance future events.

Sub: Application to apply for an internship

Greetings of the day!

As the principal of The Oxford College of Pharmacy, I am writing to explore the possibility of establishing an internship program for our students with S.R Pharmaceuticals. As a part of our academic achievements and credentials relevant to the course, I believe that an internship program with your esteemed organization would be an excellent opportunity for our students to enhance their learning experience and prepare for their future careers.

Thank you
