REPORT ON OBSERVING ENVIRONMENT ON ENVIRONMENT DAY CELEBRATION

NAME OF THE CO-ORDINATOR– MS. HEMA M

On July 5, 2024, the NSS (National Service Scheme) volunteers of The Oxford College of Arts organized a vibrant celebration in honour of World Environment Day. The event aimed to raise awareness about environmental conservation and the importance of biodiversity among students and faculty members.

The day's activities included an engaging movie screening, which highlighted the urgent need for environmental protection and the impact of human activities on biodiversity. This was followed by a plantation drive, where students and faculty participated in planting trees on campus, symbolizing their commitment to a greener future.

The event was a call to action, encouraging everyone to play an active role in environmental conservation. By observing World Environment Day, the NSS volunteers helped foster a sense of responsibility and environmental stewardship. The celebration was not only informative but also hands-on, providing participants with an opportunity to make a tangible difference.
