Report on Navaratri Celebrations at The Oxford College of Arts

The Oxford College of Arts celebrated Navaratri with great enthusiasm and vibrant festivities from September 30, 2024, culminating with the Ayudha Pooja celebrations on October 10, 2024. The celebration period was marked by a series of cultural events, competitions, and traditional observances, bringing together students and faculty in a spirit of unity and joy.

Key Events:

The festivities concluded on October 10, 2024, with Ethnic Day, the Investiture Ceremony for the Student Council winners, and an Award Ceremony to recognize the winners of various competitions held throughout the period.

Dress Code:

Students and faculty embraced the Navaratri color theme each day, enhancing the festive atmosphere on campus. The colors and their significance were as follows:

Sl. No.	Date	Colour	Importance
1	September 30, 2024	Yellow	Energy & Strength
2	October 1, 2024	White	Purity & Serenity
3	October 3, 2024	Green	Growth & Harmony
4	October 4, 2024	Grey	Peace & Calmness
5	October 5, 2024	Orange	Warmth & Joy
6	October 7, 2024	Red	Passion & Courage
7	October 8, 2024	Royal Blue	Strength & Power
8	October 9, 2024	Pink	Beauty & Grace
9	October 10, 2024	Ethnic Wear	Celebrating Cultural Heritage & Unity

Daily Competitions:

Various competitions were held each day from 2:30 PM to 3:30 PM, organized by the Student Council members. These competitions added an element of excitement and engagement, with winners being honored at the Award Ceremony on October 10th.

Ethnic Day and Final Celebrations:

On October 10th, the campus was adorned with students and faculty dressed in beautiful ethnic wear, symbolizing the rich cultural heritage and unity. The Investiture Ceremony for the Student Council winners was conducted with much fanfare, followed by the Award Ceremony recognizing the winners of the daily competitions.
