PREAMBLE

Onam, the harvest festival celebrated primarily in Kerala, marks a joyous occasion in many educational institutions, including colleges. This festival not only commemorates the legendary King Mahabali but also brings together the vibrant cultural heritage of Kerala. The celebration of Onam in a college setting is a grand affair, reflecting the unity and cultural diversity among students. The Oxford College of Pharmacy, Bangalore celebrated Onam Utsavam with great enthusiasm on 31st August 2023. The Onam celebration in our college was truly a day filled with fun and enjoyment. The entire campus was adorned with vibrant decorations and colourful Pookalam, showcasing the creativity and teamwork of the students. The festivities kicked off with a mesmerizing performance of Thiruvathira Kali, where students dressed in traditional attire danced gracefully to the rhythm of classical music.

CONTENT OF THE SESSION

The Pookalam competition started by a welcome dance performance by the final year B. Pharm and first year M. Pharm students. Total eight teams participated in the Pookalam competition and the event was judged by Mrs Pradeepa P (Assistant Professor, Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry), Mrs Divya S Kumar (Assistant Professor, Department of Pharmaceutics) and Mrs Noopur Shrivastava (HOD, Department of Pharmacology).

The event started with the Pookalam preparation by the teachers and students which is one of the most visually striking elements of Onam. Students collaborate to design and lay out these floral arrangements, often participating in Pookalam competitions. This activity fostered teamwork and showcases the artistic talents of students. For this day all the students and teachers were dressed in traditional Kerala off-white saree and mundus. The Onam celebration wrapped up beautifully with a heartfelt thanksgiving ceremony and a lively photo session. As the festivities drew to a close, everyone gathered to express their gratitude for the wonderful day. Dr Parthsarthy G, vice principal, appreciated the efforts of the organizing committee and the enthusiasm of all participants. This moment of thanksgiving created a warm and communal atmosphere, reinforcing the bonds within the college community.

PREAMBLE

Pharmacy Day is observed worldwide to honour the vital contributions of pharmacists and pharmacy professionals to healthcare. It is a day dedicated to recognizing their role in enhancing patient health and providing essential services within communities.

CONTENT OF THE PROGRAM

The Oxford College of Pharmacy, Bengaluru, celebrated Pharmacy Day 2023 with great enthusiasm, aiming to emphasize the importance of the pharmacy profession and its contributions to healthcare. The day was packed with educational, engaging, and enjoyable activities that united the college community in celebrating the field of pharmacy. The event commenced with a welcome speech by Dr. Noopur Shrivastava, Head of the Department of Pharmacology. Dr. Shrivastava's address set the tone for the day, emphasizing the significant role of pharmacists in the healthcare system and the need for ongoing professional development and community involvement.

To mark the occasion, the cultural committee organized a debate, quiz, and e-poster presentation. The students participated in the debate competition was organized, and engaged in the thought-provoking discussions on current issues in the pharmacy field. Participants debated topics such as the impact of technological advancements on pharmacy practice and the ethical considerations in pharmaceutical research. The debates encouraged critical thinking and provided a platform for students to articulate their views and ideas. The topic of the debate was "Pharmacists to Be Given Prescribing Rights to Improve Global Healthcare Access". The debate topic "Pharmacists To Be Given Prescribing Rights to Improve Global Healthcare Access" is highly relevant in today's healthcare landscape. This debate will explore the potential benefits and challenges of allowing pharmacists to prescribe medications, which could significantly impact global healthcare accessibility. Each team had prepared to counter the opposing arguments by providing evidence, case studies, and logical reasoning.

They also emphasize real-world examples where pharmacist prescribing has either succeeded or faced challenges. Along with that the e-poster presentation was also organized where students presented their unique ideas on the topic Pharmacy 2030- Vision.

PREAMBLE

The Department of Pharmacognosy, The Oxford College of Pharmacy, Bangalore, Organized Makara Sankranti festival on 13th January 2024. Makara Sankranti is celebrated to mark the beginning of the harvesting season in India. It is celebrated almost all over the country. It is the festival day in the Hindu calendar, in reference to Surya(sun). it marks the first day of sun's transit into the Makara (Capricorn), marking the end of the month with the winter solstice and the start of longer days. Being a festival that celebrates the solar cycle, it usually falls on the same Gregorian date every year. This festival is regarded as important for spiritual practices and accordingly people take holy dip in rivers, especially ganga, Yamuna, Godavari, Krishna and Kaveri. They also pray to sun and give thanks for their successes and prosperity.

The festival are known by various names such as Lohri by north India, Makara Sankranti in Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh, Sukarat in central India, Magh Bihu by Assamese, and Pongal by Tamils.

CONTENT OF THE SESSION

Makara Sankranti festival celebration was organized by the Department of Pharmacognosy, Oxford College of Pharmacy, Bengaluru, on January 13, 2024. Rangoli competition was organized for the students of D. Pharm, B. Pharm, M. Pharm, and Pharm.D. Total of 36 students participated in the rangoli competition, and two winners were selected by our judges. Our dynamic principal, Dr. Padmaa M. Paarakh, planned and executed the celebrations of the festival in the college campus. The organizers thanked Chairman Dr. S. N. V. L. Narasimha Raju Garu and Principal Dr Padmaa M Paarakh, The Oxford College of Pharmacy, for encouraging them to organize the festival celebration.

OUTCOME

- The objective of organizing makara Sankranti festival is to encourage students to learn and adopt Indian tradition & culture.
- Students understand the concept, from makara Sankranti there was a time when human beings could eat only what the earth offered. Then we learnt how to get what we wanted from the earth: this is called agriculture, its marks the threshold of the harvest season, promoting farmers to express gratitude for a fruitful yield and to seek blessings for a prosperous future.
- The Oxford College of Pharmacy teaching staff, non-teaching staff, UG, PG, diploma, and Pharm D students demonstrated interest in celebrating Makara Sankranti, indicating that the festival celebration was successful in spreading happiness.

PREAMBLE

International Women's Day, celebrated on March 8th, is a global day honouring the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women. It also marks a call to action for accelerating gender parity. The day has been celebrated for over a century, with the first official observance in 1911.

CONTENT OF THE SESSION

To commemorate International Women's Day, The Oxford College of Pharmacy, Bengaluru, organized a Selfie Stand Competition aimed at celebrating the achievements and contributions of women. The event provided a creative platform for students to express their support for gender equality and empowerment through innovative selfie stands.

The event was inaugurated by the college principal, who spoke about the significance of International Women's Day and the importance of celebrating women's achievements.

Participants were asked to design and set up selfie stands with themes centred around women's empowerment, notable women leaders, and messages of gender equality.

The creativity on display was remarkable, with stands featuring vibrant decorations, inspirational quotes, and interactive elements that encouraged participants to engage with the themes.

The selfie stands were judged based on creativity, originality, relevance to the theme, and overall presentation.

PREAMBLE

World Water Day, observed on March 22 each year, is an international day established by the United Nations to highlight the importance of freshwater and advocate for sustainable management of freshwater resources. The day aims to raise awareness about water-related challenges, such as the lack of access to clean water, sanitation issues, and the need for conservation efforts.

CONTNET OF THE PROGRAM

The World Water Day -Colour Treasure-Painting Competition at our college was a lively and impactful event designed to raise awareness about the importance of conserving and sustainably managing water resources. This competition offered students a platform to showcase their creativity while emphasizing crucial issues related to water.

The event commenced with an opening ceremony where Dr. Gururaj Kulkarni, Head of the Department, Department of Pharmaceutics addressed the participants, emphasizing the significance of World Water Day and the role of art in advocating for water conservation.

The theme for the competition was "Water for prosperity and peace". The theme aimed to highlight the vital role of water in promoting peace and cooperation. Students showcased their creativity through various painting styles, incorporating powerful messages and imagery related to water conservation and its impact on society. The paintings were judged based on creativity, originality, relevance to the theme, and artistic execution. The judges included faculty members who provided constructive feedback to the participants.

PREAMBLE:

Holi, known as the "Festival of Colours," holds immense cultural and social significance in India and around the world. Holi is known as Victory of Good Over Evil. It symbolizes the victory of good over evil, as celebrated by the burning of the demoness Holika. It also marks the arrival of spring, a season of new beginnings, growth, and rejuvenation.

CONTENT OF THE SESSION

To celebrate Holi, The Oxford College of Pharmacy, Bangalore organised a face painting completion on 2nd April 2024 at 2.30 pm. The Face Painting Competition organized during the Holi celebration at our college was a vibrant and colourful event, filled with creativity and festive spirit. Students from various departments participated enthusiastically, showcasing their artistic talents and adding to the joy of the festival.

The competition kicked off with a brief inaugural ceremony. The event was officially opened by the principal, who highlighted the significance of Holi and the importance of cultural events in fostering creativity and unity among students. Participants were given various themes related to Holi, nature, and traditional art forms. The students showcased their creativity by painting intricate designs, vibrant patterns, and symbolic imagery on their friends' faces.

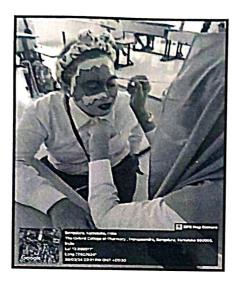

The Face Painting Competition during the Holi celebration at our college was a lively and colourful event that brought students, faculty, and staff together in the spirit of festivity and creativity. The competition was a fantastic way to blend the traditional celebrations of Holi with artistic expression. The face paintings were judged based on creativity, originality, use of colours, and adherence to the theme. The panel of judges included faculty who provided valuable feedback and encouragement to the participants.

PREAMBLE:

Eid al-Fitr, often referred to as the "Festival of Breaking the Fast," is a significant religious holiday celebrated by Muslims worldwide. It marks the end of Ramadan, the holy month of fasting. This joyous festival is a time for prayer, feasting, and community.

CONTENT OF THE SESSION

To celebrate Eid, The Oxford College of Pharmacy, Bangalore, organised Henna Hands Competition on 8th April 2024 at 2.30 PM in Room number 306. The Henna Hand Competition held during the Eid al-Fitr celebration at our college was a captivating and culturally enriching event. This competition brought together students to showcase their artistic talents and celebrate the joyous occasion of Eid with intricate henna designs.

The event began with an opening ceremony where the college principal emphasized the cultural significance of Eid al-Fitr and the beauty of henna art. Participants were encouraged to draw inspiration from traditional and contemporary henna patterns. Themes included floral designs, geometric patterns, and motifs symbolizing Eid festivities. The intricate designs and artistic flair of the students were on full display.

The competition was judged based on creativity, originality, intricacy, and adherence to the theme. The panel of judges consisted of faculty members who provided valuable feedback and appreciated the effort put into each design.

PREAMBLE:

Ugadi is a vibrant and joyous festival that marks the New Year in the Indian states of Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, and Karnataka. It typically falls in March or April, based on the lunar calendar. The festival signifies new beginnings and is celebrated with much enthusiasm. The Ugadi celebration at our college was an enchanting event that brought together students, faculty, and staff to celebrate the traditional New Year of the Deccan region. The festival, which marks the beginning of a new year according to the lunar calendar, was observed with a series of cultural activities, performances, and traditional rituals.

CONTENT OF THE SESSION

To celebrate Ugadi, The Oxford College of Pharmacy, Bengaluru had organised the Ash Less Delicacy Competition, on 8th April 2024 to promote sustainable and waste-free cooking practices. The competition saw enthusiastic participation from students, all eager to showcase their culinary creativity while adhering to the principle of zero waste. Participants were required to prepare dishes that utilized every part of the ingredients, ensuring that nothing went to waste. The competition featured a wide array of dishes, from appetizers to desserts. Some notable entries included milk shakes, healthy salads, and chia seeds drinks. Each dish was not only delicious but also exemplified the concept of ash less cooking. The dishes were evaluated based on several criteria, including taste, presentation, creativity, and adherence to the ash less cooking principle. The judges, comprising the faculty members, had a tough time selecting the winners due to the high quality of the entries.

The winners were announced at the end of the event.

PREAMBLE

The Oxford College of Pharmacy, Bengaluru, organized "WORLD ENVIRONMENTAL DAY 2024" on the theme "Our Land, Our Future we are Generation Restoration" that emphasizes the importance of restoring land, combating description, and enhancing resilience to drought.

The history of world environment day can be tracked back to 1972 when the United Nations Conference on the Human Environment was held in Stockholm, Sweden. As a result of this conference, the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) was established on June 15, 1972. The UNEP proposed a special day for the environment. In 1972, the UN General Assembly designated June 5 as World Environment Day (WED). The first World Environment Day was observed on June 5, 1973, with the slogan "Only One Earth." The environment has suffered a lot due to industrialization. World Environment Day encourages people to adopt eco-friendly practices to have a greener and clear environment and then focused on solutions to plastic pollution under the campaign. The condition of our environment is getting declined day by day because of the pollution and global warming. We should celebrate and promote eco-friendly development in our country in order to save the environment for better future. World Environment Day is the one of the most important opportunities when we can make people aware of the issues that everyone is facing and how everyone can contribute to saving it. Thus, it is quite important in its own way.

THE CONTENT OF THE SESSION

The program was conducted on June 5th 2024 with an aim to raise an awareness and to educate our students about the protection and preservation of the environment. The program was started with a welcome note by Ms. Nagalakshmi R, NSS coordinator, The Oxford College of Pharmacy. To create the awareness among the students one guest lecture by Dr Anuradha pai, Professor, The Oxford Dental College was organized. She interacted with the students for the spread awareness about the environment and the need to conserve it. She explained why it is essential to have a greener environment and conservation of nature so that our future generation will be able to lead a healthier life. She emphasized that we cannot be so selfish and use up all the resources for ourselves and do not leave anything for our future generation. She took promise from all the students that they will strive towards making our environment a better and healthy place to live in.

It is a day that reminds everyone on the planet to get involved in environment friendly activities. Keeping this aim in view, The Oxford College of Pharmacy organized a pot-paining-plantation competition. Students of various branches from department participated and celebrated world environmental day enthusiastically. All the participants were asked to paint a pot and plant a sapling from their home to create a green corner in their home gardens due to RGUHS Examination. A lot of enthusiasm was seen in the students. The photo of the pot was collected from all the class teacher by the cultural committee and the winner was decided. The first place was secured by Ms Rakshitha from III Pharm D, second position by Ms. Soniya Kumari from I D. Pharm and third position by Ms Varra Jhansi from I D.Pharm.

PREAMBLE

Independence Day is one of the proudest and prestigious day for every Indian and it is celebrated throughout India in every corner of the country on 15th August every year. August 15th stands as a significant milestone in India's history, symbolizing the nation's hard-won freedom from colonial rule. It is a day to reflect on the sacrifices of our freedom fighters and celebrate the unity and progress of an independent India. The theme for this year's celebration is "Viksit Bharat".

CONTENT OF SESSION

The Oxford College of Pharmacy, Bangalore celebrated 78th Independence day, which is themed "Viksit Bharat" with great enthusiasm on 15th August 2024. Viksit Bharat was a Hindi phrase that translated to "Developed India." It signified a vision of India as a prosperous, modern, and technologically advanced nation. The day started with the flag hoisting by Mr Rajamouli, Physical trainee teacher, The Oxford College of Pharmacy. After the flag hoisting students sung the national anthem followed by the distribution of sweets to the teachers, students and non-teaching staff. For the patriotic dress day, the students have come dressed beautifully in the tricolour theme. In line with the government's focus on national unity & development. The Oxford College of Pharmacy invited all the faculty members and students to showcase their creativity and activity with the selfie, alone or with family members or with friends posted in their official group.

After the distribution of the sweets, the students dispersed for the video story competition on the theme "Viksit Bharat". At 2 PM, the quiz started online on National symbols and traditions in Room no 306. Total Nine teams participated in the quiz competition. The students participated enthusiastically in the quiz and there was a full excitement to see their names on the top in the winner list. The quiz was organised through Quizzes and immediately after the end of the quiz the winner was announced. The first position was scored by Mr Amith and Mr Shadab from III Pharm D, second position by Mr Mahesh Babu and Ms Kareena G from I Diploma, and third position by Mr Vinod Kumar BG and Mr Shylesh KS from VIII Semester B.Pharm,

At the end of the program Mr Rajamouli, Physical trainee teacher, interacted with the students and explained the students the importance of freedom that our great freedom fighter brought to us costing their lives. He emphasized that the the young people of our country should strive their devotion for making our parents, and country proud and that this viksit bharat is the outcome of all the efforts of crores of indian who are working day and night to bring development in our country. He pointed that shifting to another country for better life should not be approach for the young minds rather than all should work together to have such development and facility so that our future generation never feel the need to go outside India. He took the promise from all

OUTCOME

The Independence Day celebrations at The Oxford College of Pharmacy, Bangalore were a resounding success. Students and faculty members alike participated enthusiastically in the various events organized, including a captivating quiz competition where 18 students showcased their knowledge of India's history and freedom struggle. The event fostered a sense of national pride and inspired participants to contribute to the nation's progress.

Beyond the festivities, the celebration served as a platform to instill a deeper understanding of the sacrifices made by our freedom fighters and the importance of upholding democratic values. It also encouraged students to actively participate in nation-building activities and strive for excellence in their academic and personal pursuits.
